

CEF OF IRELAND

Daily Prayer Guide

JANUARY – MARCH 2021

JANUARY 2021

Friday 01/01

Sarah Bleakley: Praise God for another new year—one filled with His grace and faithfulness!

Stephen & Pamela Garrett: We continue to praise God for the ways in which His Word has gone out to the boys and girls of SW Europe, especially over the Christmas period.

Julie Fenton: Praise God for the online Christmas Special and school calendars distributed in December. Pray that the calendars given out at Christmas will be displayed in the homes and God's Word will be read.

Saturday 02/01

Brian & Helen Donaghy: Praise God for the Christmas lessons that were taught and sent to schools and via Zoom.

Emma Reid: Pray for the Good News Clubs® that are run by local churches in Mid Ulster; pray for God's help and guidance for each volunteer.

Philip & Denise Annett: Please pray that God will give us wisdom as we seek to develop a ministry plan and objectives for our department for the year ahead. Pray that God will show us clearly what we need to be focusing on this year.

Sunday 03/01

Paddy & Jill Crozier: Pray that God would give us the necessary help and strength as we juggle ministry with caring for Paddy's elderly Father.

Stan & Denise Beamish: Pray for our prayer and planning group that they will know wisdom in planning ahead for summer ministries.

Jennifer McNeill: Pray for those who listened in to the online Christmas Club that God would really use it to speak into their hearts even now as we look ahead into 2021.

Monday 04/01

Colin Hylands: Pray for the GNC™s I'm involved in: Blackskull (Monday), Kilwilkie (Wednesday) and Lurgan Baptist (Friday).

Gareth & Lindsay Gwynne: We continue to put out online content every Monday; Online GNC and School Assembly talks. Pray that God would give us creativity as we write new content for these assembly talks each week.

Ida Johnston: Please pray that children will come back to the GNCs after the Christmas break. Pray that more will come to the club in Billefjord.

Tuesday 05/01

Beverley McMaster: Pray as I take the minutes at the Republic of Ireland Workers Meeting. Pray for good concentration.

Angie McKee: Pray as final preparations are made for a national online Teaching Children Effectively™ Level 1 course. Pray that people from the target counties will sign up for the training.

Roberta Sherlock: Praise God for the schools that have been using recorded assembly talks—including four new schools. Pray that these doors would remain open for future opportunities.

Wednesday 06/01

National Office: Pray for the staff, especially after many months of having to work from home last year, that they would know much help and wisdom from the Lord.

David & Rosemary Edwards: As we meet with the Board of Trustees, pray for God's wisdom and guidance in all decisions.

Geoff & Karen Wallace: Pray for Karen as she takes the ladies meeting at Lurgan Baptist that she will know God's help.

Thursday 07/01

Lynda McAuley: Pray for the children who received calendars in Co Mayo. May the Lord speak through His Word on each page.

Claire Bain: Pray for the ministry in Romania.

Philip & Rachael Agnew: Pray for the reduced numbers of calendars (4000) which have been given out. Pray that children and families would be saved through the distribution of these.

Friday 08/01

Mid Antrim: Please pray for the Mid Antrim committee members as they meet this evening that they will know God's wisdom and help as they plan for the future months without a worker. Also pray that they will get new committee members to join them.

Heather Watson: As she meets with the West Tyrone Committee, pray that the Lord will guide as they plan for the future.

David & Ruth Jackson: Pray for the young people in the Castlereagh JYC as we meet tonight to continue our studies on Peter.

Pray that the teens will grow in their walk with God.

Saturday 09/01

Niall & Heather Carrothers: Pray that plans for weekend camps at Oceanview can go ahead.

Ruth Nelson: Praise God for the many boys and girls who are hearing about God all over Europe. Pray that many more will be saved.

NE Down: Pray for children who received Christmas calendars, that God will use them to speak to them.

Sunday 10/01

Andrew & Beulah McMullan: Please pray that God will give us many opportunities to share at deputation meetings and that He will bring along those who are willing to support us on a monthly basis.

David & Olivia Crutchley: Pray for the Mourne Committee as they continue to oversee the work in the area in these unusual times.

Monday 11/01

Lynda McAuley: Pray for the children at the GNC in Blackfort Manor, Castlebar.

Emma Reid: The Mid Ulster Committee meets this evening. Pray the Lord will give wisdom and guidance as plans are made for the area.

David and Heather Cowan: Pray as we meet with the Lagan Valley Committee on the second Monday of each month. Pray that we will all know God's guidance as we plan the next steps for the ministry.

Tuesday 12/01

Brian & Helen Donaghy: Praise God for technology that we can and hope to be able to use for videos. By this stage we hope to be able to run the Doorstep GNC throughout January and February and Missionary lessons in March (see website www.cefsligo.com).

Andrew McNabb: Pray as I lead the staff team in National Office, that I would know wisdom and help from the Lord each day.

Johanna Austin: Pray for the children from the Wexford GNC—we've had new children on Zoom, and we've missed some of the 'regulars'. Pray that, whatever way we have club this term, the children would be able to come and hear God's Word.

Wednesday 13/01

Julie Fenton: Please pray for the continued recording of school assemblies.

Angie McKee: Pray for Saintfield JYC as we continue to meet online every other Wednesday. Praise God for the young people who join us each week. Pray that they will be challenged and encouraged through God's Word.

Declan & Amanda Curley: Pray for the ministry in West Belfast.

Thursday 14/01

Heather Bell: Pray as she speaks at Armagh Free Presbyterian mid-week meeting about her role in CEF[®].

Stan & Denise Beamish: Pray for the preparation and recording of lessons for school classes.

Stephen & Pamela Garrett: We praise God for Marco & Jose Baan who have taken over the role of National Director in the Netherlands. Pray that they may know much wisdom & guidance as they direct the ministry in that country.

Friday 15/01

Heather Watson: Pray for God to speak through His Word as I take school assemblies physically or prepare 'Assembly in your Classroom' videos for the schools to use.

Paddy & Jill Crozier: Please pray for the children in our Friday GNC, that God would speak into their hearts and lives through what they hear—whether that is online or face to face.

Saturday 16/01

Mid Antrim: Give thanks for the number of CEF calendars which were distributed to primary schools in the Mid Antrim area. Pray that as these are used in many homes that God's Word will speak to many hearts.

Sarah Bleakley: Pray for good health, strength and energy, particularly during the long, cold, dark season!

Jennifer McNeill: Praise God for all those who have supported the work in these challenging days both prayerfully and financially. Pray for this new year that we will have many more opportunities to share God's Word with boys and girls.

Sunday 17/01

Roberta Sherlock: Pray for the children and young people who haven't engaged well with online ministry. Pray for ideas for maintaining contact with them.

Stephen & Grace Chambers: We have been trying to raise some prayerful and financial support recently and we are so thankful to God for His provision each month.

Colin Hylands: Pray as we work on materials for the JYC weekends (these will most likely be a 1-day programme) and the planning that goes with this.

Monday 18/01

Ruth Nelson: I would appreciate prayer for my deputation from January 18th – February 7th. So much is unknown with the impact of the virus so please pray that I would depend on God to provide my needs.

David & Rosemary Edwards: Pray for good discussions and wise decisions at the Ministry Department Leaders meeting. Pray also for Beverley McMaster as she takes the minutes at this meeting.

Tuesday 19/01

David & Olivia Crutchley: Module 2 of our TCE™ 1 Course commences today for five weeks. Pray for God's help for students and teachers as we run the Course on Zoom.

Gareth & Lindsay Gwynne: Pray that a few more of our local GNCs might get to recommence, in keeping with social distancing regulations. Or that our volunteers might find novel and creative ways to stay in contact with the children.

Simon & Hannah Snodgrass: Please pray for the Lord's timing and provision for when we can move to Scotland in February/March.

Wednesday 20/01

David & Ruth Jackson: Please pray for wisdom for David as he deals with Safeguarding queries and continues with the administration of Safeguarding checks.

Andrew & Beulah McMullan: Pray as we meet via Zoom with the British workers that we will be able to build relationships with each worker. Pray that we will know God's wisdom in all discussions and that each worker will be encouraged in their work.

Thursday 21/01

Andrew McNabb: Pray as I maintain the CEF website and social media channels. Pray that many people would find out about our ministry and resources through them.

Philip & Rachael Agnew: Praise God for the remote clubs and assemblies that have now started. Pray that God would use the recordings to speak to the children and their families.

Niall & Heather Carrothers: Pray for Ireland as they deal with COVID-19.

Friday 22/01

Angie McKee: Carryduff Primary School GNC continues online via YouTube each Friday. Pray that the children will enjoy watching the video of club each week. Pray that God will speak to them through His Word.

Johanna Austin: Pray for the young people meeting in the Wexford/Shillelagh JYC Zoom meeting. Pray that God would speak to their hearts and encourage them to seek Him.

Saturday 23/01

Matt & Adele Corke: Pray for the ministry in Co Cork.

David & Heather Cowan: Praise God that the Lagan Valley JYCs continue to take place each fortnight via Zoom. Please pray that the technology will work.

David & Olivia Crutchley: Normally in January we would look forward to our JYC Weekend. Pray that we will be able find a way to spend time with our JYC young people, either in person or online.

Sunday 24/01

Stephen & Pamela Garrett: Pray for workers in Spain, France, Italy and Portugal who are presently unable to raise their budget for ministry. They are presently dependent on Support a National (SPAN) help from America & Europe. Ask God to provide the finances needed for these workers to continue in ministry.

NE Down: Pray for Louise Davidson, as she continues her training and studies.

Monday 25/01

25–29 Philip & Denise Annett: Please pray that we will have useful and productive meetings with the European Leadership Advisory Group over these next few days.

David & Rosemary Edwards: As we lead the Workers Meeting, praise God for the way He is using technology to reach boys and girls with the gospel. Pray for Beverley McMaster as she takes the minutes at the meeting.

Colin Hylands: SYC reps will meet to plan for the year ahead and to pray for the young people in their areas.

Tuesday 26/01

Stan & Denise Beamish: Praise and pray for the teens and young adults who have been such an encouragement with all their help over the past years.

Stephen & Grace Chambers: Please pray that the Lord will continue to supply our needs. Also pray for the countries in NW Europe, that the Lord will provide for them and their workers too.

Wednesday 27/01

Lynda McAuley: Pray for a new GNC in Calvary Church, Charlestown on Wednesday afternoons. Give thanks to God for 5 children who are keen to come along and pray that others will be drawn along too.

Andrew & Beulah McMullan: Please pray that God will give us the wisdom and discernment that we will need for each day and that we will be an encouragement and blessing to Stephen and Pam in the work in SW Europe.

Thursday 28/01

Emma Reid: Praise God for the opportunities to share God's Word online with the children and young people in Mid Ulster. Pray that God will continue to speak to each one.

Paddy & Jill Crozier: We praise God for those who pray for us regularly and support the work financially; pray that God would bless them for their partnership with us.

Friday 29/01

JYC weekend for West Tyrone, Mid Ulster, NE Ulster, NW Ulster & Mid Antrim. Pray that a good number of young people will attend, for safety in travelling and God to work in the lives of the young people.

Gareth & Lindsay Gwynne: Pray for our committee in Co Armagh that they might remain enthusiastic about the ministry even though it now looks very different than this time last year.

Saturday 30/01

Wilna Shaw-Karsemeijer: Thank God for the appointment of Marco and José Baan as new directors for CEF Netherlands. Thank God for Marius and Amanda Storm who continue to serve with CEF as Bible Teacher and Trainer. Pray for the new generation of CEF workers in the Netherlands as they seek to develop the ministry. Pray also for a CEF worker for the English-speaking children.

NE Down: Pray for the GNCs in the area as they continue their online ministry.

Sunday 31/01

Stan & Denise Beamish: Praise God for the opportunity to share of CEF ministry with a church in East Cork.

The Multimedia Department (David Coffey, Jill Crawford, Monty McCleery, Erin Wilson and Victoria Hylands): Pray for us as we continue to write, design and produce resources and literature. Please pray that God will use these publications for His glory and that many boys and girls will hear and respond to the gospel message.

FEBRUARY 2021

Monday 01/02

Angie McKee: Pray as the national TCE 1 course begins this evening. Pray that the students will settle in well and the technology will work. Pray the course will be of real benefit and challenge to the students and that they will see the need of reaching out to children with the gospel.

Stephen & Tanya Hamilton: Pray for us as we share about the work in Dublin at Mourneview Assembly Ladies Meeting.

NE Down: Pray for our JYC age group, that they will continue to grow in their faith.

Tuesday 02/02

Niall & Heather Carrothers: Pray for the planned camps at Oceanview this month. Pray they can go ahead in some form.

Philip & Denise Annett: Pray that Philip will know God's help as he shares God's Word with the students from the CU at University of Ulster, Magee. Pray that those who hear the message will be encouraged and helped in their walk with God.

Sarah Wagner: Pray for the work in the European and International Multimedia Department.

Wednesday 03/02

David & Rosemary Edwards: Pray for all attending the Board of Trustees Meeting. We are thankful for those who serve so faithfully on the Board.

Gareth & Lindsay Gwynne: Pray for the local schools of Co Armagh that as children have "Class Assembly" they might get to hear truths that will really change their lives.

Emma Reid: Pray for the children from Mid Ulster who are completing the Bible Discovery Correspondence Course; pray they would grow to be more like Jesus as they study God's Word.

Thursday 04/02

Andrew McNabb: Pray as I look after the IT in the National Office, that the staff would have all the equipment they need for their roles, and that it would work properly.

Julie Fenton: Pray for the GNC children, that they will continue to remember all that they have been taught at club over the years.

Jennifer McNeill: Pray for our young people in the JYC and SYC that they would continue to walk with the Lord and trust Him in these uncertain days. Pray for us as we meet together either online or in person that we would be an encouragement to them and they would be encouraged in the Lord.

Friday 05/02

Ida Johnston: Pray that someone will be willing to take responsibility for the JYC in Karasjok. We praise God that a number of girls have been coming up until Christmas.

David & Ruth Jackson: This month we usually hold a JYC residential weekend. Please pray that the young people and leaders from Castlereagh will still benefit from whatever events are possible at this time.

Paddy & Jill Crozier: Pray for wisdom, guidance and continued unity as we meet with David & Rosemary Edwards each Friday.

Saturday 06/02

Andrew & Beulah McMullan: We thank God for the finance He has already brought into our account and we would ask you to pray that the required amount of support will soon be acquired.

Wilna Shaw-Karsemeijer: Thank God for the English-speaking children in Amsterdam that watch the YouTube videos from the CEF of Ireland website. Pray that they will learn from God's Word online. Thank God for an international church that put a link for the CEF of Ireland At Home resources on their website for parents to use at home with their children.

Sunday 07/02

Colin Hylands: Pray for Dublin JYC as they meet every other Sunday evening.

Stan & Denise Beamish: Pray that we will have opportunities to share with churches and individuals to encourage others to pray and support us in ministry.

Stephen & Pamela Garrett: Pray for the students in many of our South West countries who are hoping to take the Children's Ministry Leadership Course (CMLC) this summer. Many of these students were enrolled for last summer's courses which had to be cancelled because of the Coronavirus pandemic.

Monday 08/02

Johanna Austin: Pray for the children from the Shillelagh GNC on Zoom—that God would work in their hearts as they hear the Bible lessons this term.

David and Heather Cowan: Praise God for each volunteer who helps us with the work in the Lagan Valley area. Pray that soon we will be able to teach the children and young people face to face.

Stephen & Grace Chambers: Our biggest priority in ministry is for our existing boards, leaders, workers and volunteers to be people of God's Word and prayer. Please pray this will be the case and that it will impact the ministry.

Tuesday 09/02

Angie McKee: Pray as I teach at the Mourne TCE 1 course this evening.

Lynda McAuley: Pray for the children at the GNC in Castlebar Christian Fellowship.

Simon & Hannah Snodgrass: Pray for a good time with family before we leave, even with the COVID-19 restrictions. Neither of us are looking forward to the goodbyes.

Wednesday 10/02

Mid Antrim: Give thanks for Emma and Amy who lead the SYC in the area. Pray that they will be encouraged as they plan creative ways to communicate with the young people during COVID-19 restrictions.

NE Down: Pray for the committee as decisions need to be made regarding camp ministry.

Philip & Rachael Agnew: Pray that we would get back to some kind of normality soon with schools being open to direct ministry with the children again.

Thursday 11/02

David & Rosemary Edwards: Please pray for the continued work on the Seaview Project. Pray for protection for each one working onsite.

David & Olivia Crutchley: As GNCs continue, most likely online, pray that children will continue to have the interest to tune in each week.

Emma Reid: Pray for great opportunities to share God's Word with the children in Mid Ulster.

Friday 12/02

Heather Watson: Pray as the West Tyrone Committee meet this evening that God would guide in all the decisions.

David & Ruth Jackson: The final series of Bible lessons for the current GNC year are due to be distributed now along with a new Easter lesson. Pray that everything is ready in good time and that these resources will be used by God in the hands of workers and volunteers as they teach precious boys and girls.

Saturday 13/02

Stephen & Tanya Hamilton: Pray for the Kids club on Zoom and YouTube, 5pm every Saturday.

Colin Hylands: Pray for the JYC weekends that are scheduled over this month (in whatever format this takes).

Sarah Bleakley: Praise God for all the wonderful opportunities to learn—both a new language and a completely new way of life in Lapland

Sunday 14/02

Johanna Austin: Pray for the churches that I have been contacting about training opportunities—that God would direct and lead me to those that are keen to be involved, and that He would give churches the desire to reach out to children in the community who haven't heard the gospel.

Andrew & Beulah McMullan: Pray as we share at deputation meetings about the work God has established in SW Europe; that people will be burdened to pray for the children and to pray for more labourers for the harvest field.

Monday 15/02

Ruth Nelson: Please pray for the IT Department of Europe. With the internet being used increasingly these days it is vital that we make sure it is safe and that we meet the guidelines; this can be a long and tiring job.

Beverley McMaster: Pray that God will enable me to be a blessing and help as I assist David & Rosemary.

NE Down: Pray for Louise Davidson as she develops contacts in the area.

Tuesday 16/02

Julie Fenton: Pray for a series of online RE lessons that have been prepared. Pray for good uptake in the schools.

Paddy & Jill Crozier: Pray for wisdom as we discuss how best to open our camp centres again (at time of writing restrictions are such that Oceanview is still unable to be opened).

Roberta Sherlock: Pray that the girls who faithfully attend Calvary JYC would put their trust in the Lord.

Wednesday 17/02

Mid Antrim: Pray for guidance and wisdom as decisions are made about holding the CEF camp in the area. Give thanks for all the young people who attended the online camp last year and pray that many will want to return this year again, either as campers or as leaders.

Gareth & Lindsay Gwynne: Pray for those who listen to and watch the YouTube channel each week. We've had some messages to say that families are watching these together.

Thursday 18/02

Wilna Shaw-Karsemeijer: Pray for the translation of the Wondersurf website in Dutch and that the Lord will guide me in how to get involved with this digital ministry to reach children.

Emma Gordon: Pray for the ministry in South Belfast.

Lynda McAuley: Pray for the Lord to use literature packs distributed to children in Co Mayo. May families be impacted and transformed by the message of the gospel.

Friday 19/02

Niall & Heather Carrothers: Pray for safety of everyone at camp if this can go ahead at the time.

Andrew McNabb: Pray as I serve on the Seaview Redevelopment team, that my input would benefit the project and make the new centre as useful as possible.

Brian & Helen Donaghy: Pray that as the restrictions lift there will be a real eagerness for the young people to meet together in small groups and really grow in faith and desire to reach out to their peers in our newly furnished and available youth room in Sligo.

Saturday 20/02

Heather Watson: Pray as I connect with prayer and financial supporters in the West Tyrone area and also in my school assemblies and GNCs.

David and Heather Cowan: Praise God that the Lagan Valley SYC is able to take place each month via Zoom. Pray that the young people will be encouraged as they meet to pray and study God's Word.

Stephen & Grace Chambers: Please pray that the Lord will lead us to new workers and volunteers—we have many needs and opportunities in the countries of NW Europe.

Sunday 21/02

Philip & Denise Annett: Pray that God will use His Word in the lives of the adults, children and young people who attend Raffrey Presbyterian family service this morning. Pray that Philip will know much help as he teaches.

Stan & Denise Beamish: Pray for positive contacts with churches, church leaders and youth workers in different counties as we seek to share the vision of CEF.

Rosalind Patterson: Pray for the ministry in North Dublin.

Monday 22/02

David & Rosemary Edwards: Pray for good fellowship and discussion together at the Workers Meeting. Pray for Beverley McMaster as she takes the minutes of the meeting.

David & Ruth Jackson: Pray for the opportunity to do Safeguarding training sessions via Zoom. Thank God for the technology which makes this possible.

Jennifer McNeill: Pray as we try to make decisions about summer camp. Pray that if physical camps are possible that we will find suitable venues and have leaders who are willing to help. If online is our only option pray for wisdom as to how to do this.

Tuesday 23/02

Andrew & Beulah McMullan: We thank God for the current workers in Italy. Please pray for the Italians who have completed the CMLC in previous years, that God will call them to work with CEF in that country to reach the children in their localities.

Colin Hylands: Pray as I work on materials for Inters camps in the summer.

Julie Fenton: Praise God for the faithful supporters of the work in North Belfast and Greater Shankill as they continue to stand with us through these uncertain times.

Wednesday 24/02

Philip & Rachael Agnew: Thank God for the many supporters who have encouraged and helped in many ways.

Geoff & Karen Wallace: Continue to pray for the online Spa GNC on YouTube. Pray that many children will watch this regularly and that the Lord will speak into their hearts and lives.

Sarah Bleakley: Please pray for His wisdom and understanding as I continue to make new friends and learn a new language!

Thursday 25/02

Ida Johnston: Pray that God will keep His hand upon us as we travel in treacherous conditions in snow and ice.

Lynda McAuley: Pray for the children and families associated with the GNC in Ballinrobe.

The Multimedia Department: Pray as we work on the children's literature and resources for our various ministries. Pray for creativity and an awareness of God's help and guidance as we create these resources.

Friday 26/02

David and Heather Cowan: Pray for wisdom as we look towards the summer work and begin to make plans, even though the way ahead is uncertain

Colin Hylands: Pray for the Teens Weekend (Faith Mission centre, Portadown) as I lead and speak.

Stephen & Pamela Garrett: We praise God for the camp centres which we have in SW Europe. Not only do we look to God for the completion of the Seaview project in Ireland, but we ask you to pray for the Vendas Novas Retreat Centre in Portugal. The restrictions of 2020 and beyond have created a real financial crisis for the Portuguese Board.

Saturday 27/02

Gareth & Lindsay Gwynne: Pray for wisdom in the ministry with the teens; they require a little more than a link to watch a lesson or a club. It's difficult days to try and stay in contact with them; we need to get creative!

Stephen & Tanya Hamilton: Pray for the Youth Meeting on Zoom, 7pm every Saturday.

Emma Reid: Pray for the young people who attend Mid Ulster SYC, that they would grow spiritually.

Sunday 28/02

Paddy & Jill Crozier: Pray that God would open doors where we can share about the work of CEF; pray that God would use what is said to call others into the work.

Roberta Sherlock: Praise God for faithful volunteers who give of their time to reach the children and young people of East Belfast.

David & Olivia Crutchley: We meet monthly with our GNC teachers on Zoom, just for a time of encouragement. Pray for these teachers who have missed not being with the children in club over the winter months.

MARCH 2021

Monday 01/03

David & Rosemary Edwards: Pray for wisdom for each Department Leader at our Ministry Department Leaders meeting. Pray for Beverley McMaster taking the minutes.

Angie McKee: Pray as the online TCE 1 course continues. Pray for the teachers and the students, especially as they do their practicals.

Tuesday 02/03

Andrew & Beulah McMullan: Pray as we share at a deputation meeting tonight that God will give us the words He would have us to speak. We pray that the meeting will be a blessing and encouragement to each one who attends and that they will have a renewed vision for the children of SW Europe.

David & Ruth Jackson: We would value prayer as we consider the possibility of Easter Outreach in our local church. Pray we might have wisdom but also the desire to grasp whatever opportunities are available.

Wednesday 03/03

Stan & Denise Beamish: Pray for contacts with schools for opportunities for teaching the Easter lesson.

Paddy & Jill Crozier: Pray for continued help and guidance as we prepare for Easter Conference; at the time of writing we are unsure what format this will take.

Jennifer McNeill: Pray for us as we plan what ministry we can still carry out under whatever restrictions are currently in place.

Thursday 04/03

National Office: Pray that the office would be a welcoming place for all who visit, and that it would be used of the Lord to equip the workers on the field with everything they need.

Emma Reid: Give thanks to God for the faithful volunteers and supporters who are a blessing to so many in Mid Ulster.

Philip & Rachael Agnew: We thank God for how well direct ministry has been going in Whiteabbey GNC and the JYC ministry too.

Friday 05/03

Niall & Heather Carrothers: Pray for the planned camps at Oceanview this month. Pray they can go ahead in some form.

Lynda McAuley: Pray for the GNC in Calvary Church, Westport. May the Lord draw along more children to hear His Word.

Gareth & Lindsay Gwynne: Pray for the correspondence course ministry, that this means of discipleship might prove precious to many children as they read, study and think over Bible passages for themselves.

Saturday 06/03

Stephen & Tanya Hamilton: Pray for the Youth Meeting online every Saturday on Zoom at 7pm.

Heather Watson: Pray for all involved in the West Tyrone Fellowship Evening as it is planned to take place this evening in the Newtownstewart 2000 Centre. Pray that people would be challenged to get involved with the work in the local area.

Stephen & Pamela Garrett: We praise God for the blessings of a growing family and ask you to pray for the safe arrival of our fourth grandchild this month.

Sunday 07/03

Philip & Denise Annett: Pray that God will bring new prayer and financial partners into our ministry support team as we engage in a week of deputation in the Co Armagh area.

David & Olivia Crutchley: Pray for our young leaders who help so much in our summer work. We missed being with them last summer; pray that their burden to reach children may stay strong.

Monday 08/03

Sarah Bleakley: Praise God for the volunteers who help us with GNCs in Lapland.

Andrew McNabb: Pray as I lead projects to improve our data storage and financial processing systems, that they would be of much help in mission administration and that problems would be few.

David and Heather Cowan: Praise God for each of our financial supporters. Pray that those who faithfully give will continue to know God's blessing in return.

Tuesday 09/03

Julie Fenton: Continue to pray for the clubs that have been able to start and for the online club too. Pray that many children will attend either of these and continue to learn about the Saviour.

Heather Bell: Pray for accuracy and efficiency as I record numbers and make calculations in my role as finance administrator.

Linda Corry: Pray for the work in the European Education Department.

Wednesday 10/03

Angie McKee: Continue to pray for Saintfield JYC as we teach the young people every other Wednesday. We have a lovely group of young people—all girls! Pray that those who are unsaved will trust in Christ, and that the Christian young people will grow in their faith through the teaching they receive in JYC.

NE Down: Pray for the area camp that God will raise up leaders to help us continue this ministry.

Thursday 11/03

Ruth Nelson: Pray for God's wisdom and protection on the internet. Not everyone agrees with our beliefs and it can be easier to say so online when you are not face-to-face with someone. Pray that God would help us in these situations.

Stephen & Grace Chambers: Pray that the Lord would supply our needs regarding an area team to include assistants and part time/ full time co-ordinators for Youth Challenge™, Education, IT, Multimedia etc.

Friday 12/03

Colin Hylands: Pray for the Southern Teens weekend, Faith Mission Centre, Durrow.

Mid Antrim: Pray for a new worker for the area and ask the Lord to raise up more prayer partners to meet during the Week of Prayer.

Roberta Sherlock: Pray that God would open doors for His Word to be taught to children in East Belfast.

Saturday 13/03

Stephen & Pamela Garrett and Andrew & Beulah McMullan: Please pray for safety in travel (if travel is possible) to the Annual General Assembly of AEE (Belgium) today and the Annual General Assembly of APECP (Portugal) on Saturday 20th March. May God guide in both these meetings. Pray that God will bring along the leader of His choosing for Belgium.

Emma Reid: Pray for the young people who attend Mid Ulster JYC, that they would be blessed as they meet and that they would have a desire to follow and serve the Lord.

Sunday 14/03

14–21 Spring Week of Prayer. Pray that many will have a burden to pray for boys and girls.

Co Donegal: Pray for the local committee as they maintain the ministry in the county in the absence of a Local Worker.

Johanna Austin: Pray for the Wexford Teen Zoom meetings that these teens would be encouraged through the Bible Studies and would seek to live for God in their daily lives.

Monday 15/03

Lynda McAuley: Pray for the children and teachers in the schools in Mayo which are usually visited at Easter time.

Paddy & Jill Crozier: Pray that we would be a help, blessing and encouragement as we meet with workers, especially those who do not have their own Local Committee.

Brian & Helen Donaghy: Pray that all the connections that were lost due to lack of enthusiasm for Zoom meetings will be reconnected and we can see young people and children and families desire to hear God speak into their lives and become true followers of Jesus Christ.

Tuesday 16/03

Beverley McMaster: Pray that God will give me wisdom as I deal with email and telephone enquiries.

Julie Fenton: Pray for good ideas and planning for an Easter Special for the area.

Jennifer McNeill: Pray for the possibility of carrying out Easter clubs and meeting in person if this is allowed.

Wednesday 17/03

Heather Watson: Pray for me and the volunteers involved in St Patrick's Day outreach.

NE Down: Pray for the St Patrick's Day tract distribution in the area, that it will reach children with the gospel.

Gareth & Lindsay Gwynne: Pray for the Box collection that will commence this month. Pray for encouraging conversations on the doorstep and that we might be a blessing to others.

Thursday 18/03

Stan & Denise Beamish: Pray that we will know and sense the Lord's leading each day.

David & Olivia Crutchley: Thank God for the opportunity to send video assemblies into schools across the area; pray that doors into schools will remain open to us.

Ida Johnston: Pray we will be able to have Easter clubs and that churches will see this as a good means of reaching out with the Easter message. Pray that it will be possible to have an Easter club in the Horseshoe Block in Hammerfest.

Friday 19/03

Angie McKee: Pray for Carryduff Primary School GNC as we continue to either upload club online each week or we meet with the children.

David & Ruth Jackson: Thank God for the faithfulness of the young people who attend Castlereagh JYC and pray for their spiritual growth.

Saturday 20/03

Stephen & Tanya Hamilton: Pray for the online Kids Club every Saturday, on Zoom and YouTube at 5pm.

Colin Hylands: Pray for the JYC Missions night planned for this evening.

Sarah Bleakley: Please pray that He will send more full-time workers to help us in CEF Lapland.

Sunday 21/03

David and Heather Cowan: Praise God for the encouragement we receive as we read God's Word. Pray that we will continue to know His leading and guiding.

Philip & Rachael Agnew: Pray that God would show us in the coming days new ideas to conduct ministry.

Stephen & Pamela Garrett: Pray for wisdom to know whether to hold the General Assembly Meetings in our South West countries face-to-face or online.

Monday 22/03

Andrew McNabb: Pray as I serve alongside the other ministry department leaders, that we would know great unity and the Lord's leading for future ministry.

Lynda McAuley: Pray for the Lord to save children in Co Mayo and may they live their lives for His honour and glory.

Jonathan Graham: Pray for the ministry in Co Fermanagh.

Tuesday 23/03

Simon & Hannah Snodgrass: Please pray for Hannah and me as we settle into Scotland (DV) and that we would find a good Christian church and community early on.

David & Olivia Crutchley: As GNCs draw towards a close, pray for all the children who have heard God's Word taught online. Pray that all clubs in the area will be able to start again for real in the autumn.

NE Down: Pray for plans for 5-Day Club®s in the area that we will be able to hold them this year.

Wednesday 24/03

Heather Watson: Easter assemblies are being held in West Tyrone this week, either physically or virtually. Pray that it would be possible to hold Easter Clubs in local community centres.

Philip & Denise Annett: Ask God to direct and guide us as we seek to support and develop National CEF leaders across Europe. Pray for God's provision of all the resources we need to effectively develop our department in the coming months.

Thursday 25/03

Geoff & Karen Wallace: Pray for the children and young people in residential care homes across Northern Ireland as Karen and Geoff deliver gospel literature and Easter gifts. Pray that the Lord will open doors again and for opportunities to share the gospel.

Gareth & Lindsay Gwynne: The summer months are looming. Pray that we might know wisdom as we organise summer ministry whether online or in person.

Friday 26/03

Simon & Jayne Gibson: Pray for the ministry in Co Cavan.

Paddy & Jill Crozier: Pray that we would know God's continued guidance in our daily lives and wisdom for all decisions that are made.

Roberta Sherlock: Pray for the salvation of boys and girls in East Belfast.

Saturday 27/03

Niall & Heather Carrothers: Pray for the safety of everyone at camp if this can go ahead at the time.

Stephen & Grace Chambers: Pray for the Western European Area Advisory Group who meet this month to pray about and plan for the development of the work in Western Europe (SW & NW). Pray that the Lord will give us clear leading from His Word about the direction to go, especially in 'new' countries or countries where the work is smaller and needs much work.

Sunday 28/03

Andrew & Beulah McMullan: We have a deputation meeting in Clonaneese tonight speaking at the senior CE. Please pray that we will know God's presence and help in the meeting.

Johanna Austin: Pray for any online teacher training that's happening—that churches and believers from the target counties in the Republic of Ireland would have a desire to take classes and be involved in reaching children with the gospel.

Monday 29/03

David & Rosemary Edwards: Pray that God will bless and guide at the Workers Meeting. Pray for Beverley McMaster taking the minutes.

Mid Antrim: Give thanks for the GNCs in the area which were able to meet during the year. Pray that the Holy Spirit will continue to work in the hearts of the children who heard the gospel, saving the lost and building up the Christians.

Tuesday 30/03

The Multimedia Department: Pray as we assist Local Workers in their ministries and as they help create additional promotional material for the mission.

NE Ulster: Pray for the local committee as they oversee the ministry in the area in the absence of a Local Worker.

Wednesday 31/03

Philip & Rachael Agnew: Pray for those who have heard the gospel presented through the recordings online, that they would be saved.

Wilna Shaw-Karsemeijer: Pray as I prepare to retire in summer 2021, DV. It is unknown when travelling to Ireland will be allowed due to COVID-19 restrictions; pray for an opportunity for me to visit prayer partners and supporters in Ireland when it is safe to do so.
