Prayer Monthly September 2019

1st September

The Garvies give thanks to God for being able to reconnect with supporters, and for stamina and good health during the past two months of deputation and travel.

2nd September

Please pray that the Garvies would be able to establish a helpful routine for the family; that Beth and Matthew would settle well in school and Samuel into home-schooling.

3rd September

Praise God for opportunities for Godwin Ekanem to preach and lead Bible Studies. Pray for safety as he travels in connection with his work.

4th September

Pray for Gail as she continues writing. Pray for the Ekanems as they start a Children's Bible Club on Saturdays from September.

5th September

Sid Garland thanks God for the recent service in Jos for the dedication of the 5000 copies of the Hausa Africa Bible Commentary. Pray that ACTS will have God's help to facilitate effective distribution.

6th September

Sid Garland thanks God for the opportunity to print 4,000 copies of John Stott's commentary on 2 Timothy for supply to a pastors' conference in the Baptist Seminary, Ogbomoso.

7th September

Sid Garland asks for prayer for God's help in presenting the work of ACTS including during a Langham Vision Event (7th September) and the London Conference later this month.

8th September

Pamela and Musa Gaiya thank God for His goodness and faithfulness to them during their two-month home assignment. The Lord encouraged, richly blessed and protected over the many miles they covered.

9th September

School has now resumed for Gracie and she is off to a great start in grade four. Musa's role at the University of Jos is a busy one at present – Students have just finished exams. Pray for energy.

10th September

Pray for Pamela as she facilitates visitors who will come to Jos in September. Pray for wisdom and guidance.

11th September

Pray for the Mission Africa council as they lead and govern the work of the Mission. Give thanks for their willingness to serve in this way. Pray that God will lead and guide them.

12th September

Robbie Toop is exhibiting at Keswick in Motherwell, running from 12th to 14th September. Pray for good conversations and a productive time.

13th September

Katie Morrison is thankful that the Nigeria team ran smoothly. She is thankful for all the opportunities to shine the light of Christ. Pray for all those the team reached out to and spent time with. Pray for Nigerian partner churches and staff as they follow-up the work of the team.

14th September

Pray for two team members, Lara and Rebecca, who are staying on for a few weeks after the summer team. They will be involved within the hospital, children's work and compassionate ministries.

15th September

Sarah Morrison asks for prayer for several Muslims who, through coming to Holley Memorial Hospital and the witness of the staff there, have given their lives to Christ. Pray they would remain strong in their faith as they go back to their local communities where they may face challenges.

16th September

Sarah Morrison is hoping to return to Nigeria to work at HMH for another year, Pray that everything will go smoothly to enable this.

17th September

Ana van Brakel gives thanks for a good summer period as well as a good start of her TEFL course.

18th September

Ana continues to ask prayer for the security situation in Burkina Faso and that the papers needed for her permanent residence application will come through soon.

19th September

David and Lucy Morrison praise God for a great kids club reaching out to local children, led by the Acacia ladies. Pray for the Morrises as they review and plan for future clubs.

20th September

Pray for connections with vulnerable women and men especially in the area where the David and Lucy ran the kids club. Pray that doors and hearts would be open and that they would have the time and energy to be available.

21st September

Pray with David and Lucy for continued motivation and progress with their Arabic learning and for the relationship with their teacher to grow and strengthen.

22nd September

Samantha Ibia asks for prayer for the students that she works with through FCS. Pray that as they resume school, the FCS groups will have impact on them for God.

23rd September

Pray for Hephzibah, Samantha's daughter, as she starts school. Pray that she will settle well.

24th September

Samantha thanks God for holiday schools' outreaches held across the Abuja by FCS. Give thanks for the students who were impacted and for the success of these events.

25th September

Praise God for the success of the Mission Africa summer teams to Nigeria and Kenya. Pray for the team members as they settle back into life at home. Pray that their experiences will lead to a lifelong support of global mission.

26th September

We are hoping to send a short termer to Kenya for seven months. This is new ground for us, but an area that we hope to develop. Pray that arrangements will go to plan, particularly the acquisition of a work permit.

27th September

Jeremy Nash asks that you pray for God to move peoples' hearts to give to printing and ministry costs for Burkina Faso and also to the Poor fund.

28th September

Pray there will be a good turnout of people, both new and old, at the London Conference on Saturday 28th September, that local churches encourage their members to come along. Pray for the speakers, that the sessions are informative and stimulating.

29th September

Give thanks for all the events Mission Africa has attended this summer, including various Keswick events, New Wine, New Horizon and Bangor Worldwide. Pray that people will have come away from these events with a desire to support the work of Mission Africa, through prayer, giving or going.

30th September

Pray for the Mission Africa office staff as they plan for a number of events (hopefully) happening in the autumn and new year. Pray for God's guidance in knowing how to proceed on a number of fronts.
